The Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.
(Through the Residency Surgeon, Bangalore)

The petition of the late Supervisor P. Ramasawmy Pillay, of the Plague Department, Civil & Military Station, Bangalore humbly sheweth:-

That the petitioner was entertained in the year 1898, as a Supervisor at the out-break of Plague in the Station, and owing to the reduction of the establishment, his services were dispensed with from the 17th April 1907. (Vide copies of certificates granted by the authorities attached).

2. That the petitioner at the risk of his life and personal violence, has rendered faithful service, when the town was highly infected and the ignorant masses were alarmingly riotous. In short, he has carried out his duties fearless of consequences and in the very face of active resistance.

3. That he has, in addition to his own duties, gratuitously rendered assistance in the work of enumeration during the past Government census/1901, and like other members of the public service, he has arduously worked at very late part of the night as 11 P.M., in the year 1899 escorting arrivals from the Railway Station, to their homes, in the measure of operations, he had undergone severe hardships and also carried out the clerical duties in the Office after the out-door works were over, without any allowance.

4. The petitioner has been given to understand that his brother Supervisors, who served with him, have been granted with Pensions & Gratuity for the services rendered by them; as the petitioner was away from the Station with his present employer (Dr. C.J. Ingram-Cotton, Dental Surgeon, of this station) he was unable to present his petition and

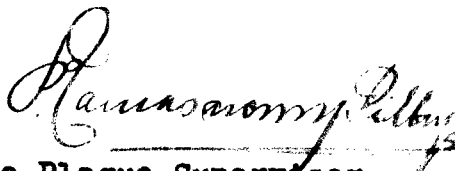

5. That the petitioner therefore humbly and respectfully begs leave to pray that in recognition of the singular service which he had rendered under trying circumstances, to the - benign British Government, when it was sorely in need of the executive hands, the Hon'ble the Resident, in Mysore will be pleased to grant the petitioner, a pension or gratuity as may be deemed fit and proper.

6. The petitioner herein encloses copies of Testimonials for the perusal of the Hon'ble the British Resident in Mysore.

Begging to be pardoned for the intrusion and thanking in anticipation.

The Petitioner beg to remain,

Your most obedient and humble servant,

Late Plague Supervisor,
6th Plague District, C. & M. Station,
Bangalore.

The Honorable Resident

Bangalore

From Late. Peer Baig. Plague Supervisor
18th District

Residing in. No. 910 Street

New. Parachavay, Bangalore

Most Honored Sir

I the undersigned begs to inform,
I served as Plague Supervisor under, Dr. Chas. R
Coxe in 18th District from August 1898 to May 1901. During that time it was the First Plague time & I served hard for which herewith I have enclosed a copy of My testimonial. People who served for a year or two received grant, whereas I served for more than 3 years receive nothing. Now I am very old age and unable to do work. If your honor consider my case and to do me something in this old age I will never forget the kindness till I kiss the grave once more I beg to inform I lost my right eye besides I am very old age and unable to do any work so I humbly beg to excuse me for the troubles, and consider my case and to do something, for this poor man, and it will a great help to me in this old age
For which act of Charity & Kindness
I and my poor family shall ever pray

I beg to remain,
Most honored Sir

your most obedient servant.

Late Plague Supervisor
Peer Baig.

S i r,

I was engaged by the Residency Surgeon, Bangalore, as Plague Nurse and then worked as Lady Health Visitor of the Child's Welfare Scheme from the year 1910 to December 1924, for which a Superannuation pension of Rs 23/8/- was granted me according to Government ruling, but which I have not yet received.

The pay I drew during this long period remained stationary at Rs 100/- per mensem, while other departments received increases of pay. Had I been treated in the same way, my pension would have been greater.

I have heard that Government has granted an enhanced pension to Europeans who are drawing under Rs 25/- per mensem, and as I am a European widow without any other means of support I am now appealing for your help in the matter of giving me the same concession.

I am beyond work now, my constitution being undermined through strenuous work in the slums- among the very poor Indians during the dreadful epidemics of Plague, Influenza, Small Pox etc., without a break in my services of 14 years, and my salary was just enough to keep me and left no margin for me to make provision for the future.

Dear Mrs Bouvard.

I have written to Mr. Austin strongly recommending a pension for you when you retire, and I am quite sure the Commission will do all they can. They all realize how valuable your work has been.

It would be very nice if your daughter could succeed you and then she could make a home for you. I hope she will send in her application so that it may be considered with the others.

I am so sorry I shall not see you before I go off but we leave on Wednesday and I fear I shall not have time to come down again. I am returning in October so will see you then.

I do not think you need worry about the future as you have too many friends to look after your interests. Mrs Austin will I know do everything to help.

Yours truly,
